Applicant: Andrian , Veronica

A2DAF\100004

Section 2 - Personal Details

What is the name of your current university, research institute or employer?

No Response

What is your current job title?

- ☐ Graduate student
- ☐ Post doc or research fellow
- ☐ Faculty
- ☐ Other (fill in below)

No Response

If you are studying for your PhD, which year of study are you in?

- ☐ 1
- ☐ 2
- ☐ 3
- ☐ 4
- ☐ 5
- ☐ Not applicable

Are you an applicant coming from industry?

- ○ Yes
- ○ No

Additional information

No Response

Area of research focus (e.g. statistical physics, spatial statistics, NLP, digital humanities, ...)

No Response

Section 3 - Experience and Qualifications

What technical skills would you bring to your team?

No Response

Please provide a link (or links) to evidence the technical skills stated in the previous question.

No Response

What experience do you have of working in a collaborative environment?

No Response

What do you hope to personally achieve through your participation in the Data Study Group?

No Response

Please upload a copy of your CV

No Response

Please feel free to add a link to your personal website. (optional)

No Response

Please indicate which challenge (s) you are most interested in.

The challenges for this DSG can be found on the Turing website. Please take a read of the challenge descriptions (if you haven't already) and let us know which of these you are interested in working on. We'll use these responses primarily for planning purposes.

☐ Cancer Research UK (CRUK) Cambridge - 'Modelling interactions driving breast cancer development'
☐ Shield Digital - 'Detecting illegal online vendors of counterfeit prescription medication'
☐ UCL- 'Identifying hospitals which are underperforming when participating in clinical research'
☐ Greenvest - 'Forecasting solar panels energy supply with satellite data'
☐ Humanising Autonomy - 'Identifying safety-critical situations on the road'

Any additional information (optional)

No Response

Section 4 - Your Requirements for the Week